IN-HELMET COACH-TO-PLAYER COMMUNICATION

TAKE YOUR GAME AND PRACTICE COMMUNICATION TO THE NEXT LEVEL WITH C2P.

When the game is on the line, every second matters. Effective communication between coaches and players can significantly impact your team's performance and overall success. Whether it's calling the play at the line, or providing situational awareness before the snap, Cobalt PLUS Coach-to-Player (C2P) communication gives your team a critical edge.

Coach-to-player communication helps improve player development through feedback, improves performance and confidence, and gives you a winning edge.
