EXPANDABLE AND FLEXIBLE COMMUNICATION FOR BASEBALL

STARTING AT $1850*

Cobalt PLUS technology is now being used by over 200 teams at the highest level of college baseball to promote flexible, interruption-free player development and coaching. With multiple talk channels, communications aren't limited to just one coach and player position or group. Several coaches and position groups can engage in communications and benefit from unique feedback and instruction.

Lightweight and easy to wear, the Cobalt PLUS pack mounts on the back of the catcher and features a small, low-profile ear tube that is discreet and unobstructive in use, even in high levels of activity.
